

“The Catholic Biblical School provides adults the opportunity to encounter the Word of God in prayerful, in-depth and faithful ways that prepare them to become evangelizing leaders in their faith communities.”

*—Most Rev. Leonard P. Blair, S.T.D.
Archbishop of Hartford*

CBS MISSION

- ◆ To inspire adults to engage God’s Word (the Bible) and encounter God’s Word (Jesus)
- ◆ To empower individuals and faith communities
- ◆ To integrate Bible study with prayer and Christian living
- ◆ To prepare adults to be evangelizing witnesses to the Gospel and to lead Bible-based ministries
- ◆ To respond to the call to make Scripture available to all
- ◆ To avoid confusion resulting from interpretation of the Bible contrary to Catholic teaching

“CBS is an exhilarating experience.”

“CBS showed me the beauty of our Catholic heritage.”

CENTER FOR CATHOLIC EDUCATION & FORMATION

“Teachers present with intensity and love of the Scripture.”

“I never imagined in my lifetime I would read and study every book of the Bible!”

OUR STUDENTS

- ◆ Engage the Bible deeply as God's revealed Word
- ◆ Connect the Bible with Catholic teaching
- ◆ Acquire essential skills for leading Bible-based ministries

CLASS MEETINGS

- ◆ In-person and virtual options available
- ◆ Held weekly, day and evening, every season but summer
- ◆ Formation retreats twice a year
- ◆ Presented by regional and international Bible experts

GRADUATE DISCIPLES

Over 500 graduates lead biblical ministries in many different settings. They teach in parishes and schools, lead Bible studies, retreats and prayer groups, social justice ministries, and more. They work with prisoners, preschoolers, the sick and the poor. Continuing enrichment is available for four-year graduates.

COURSE OF STUDY

A four-year course of study accredited by the State of Connecticut covering every book of the Bible. Students need not be Catholic to enroll. Classes meet September through May with seasonal breaks.

CBS 100 and 200 Basic Biblical Studies

Includes key books of Old and New Testaments; how to read, pray and interpret using ancient and contemporary biblical tools

CBS 300 and 400 Advanced Biblical Studies

Covers remaining books of the Bible with emphasis on reading the Bible as a unified work and deepening skills of interpretation
